By WALTER M. BARRETT

From the present outlook it appears that the 1940 elections in Truckee at least will be a contest well worth watching. Already two candidates have entered the race for supervisor and others, we are reliably informed are considering the same job seriously. It will provide us with something besides the weather to talk about on those long winter evenings.

Tomorrow you will be called upon to decide who shall administer the spending of some $20,000 of your money. That is something less than it takes annually to operate the two local schools and is raised through taxation, each of us contributing and therefore with a right to selecting those who shall spend it most judiciously. School elections, whether you will agree or not are of vital importance. We have few other bodies who have the spending of large sums of money annually without our supervision and it is well to give serious thought to the capabilities of those chosen. Whatever you do, go to the polls tomorrow and exercise your privilege.

Graduation exercises are being held at the grammar school tonight for ten boys and girls who have passed the first step in their march toward education. It will be one of the biggest moments in their lives as they receive their diplomas and it will add materially to that moment if a full audience is on hand to enjoy the occasion with them.

Tons Of Dynamite Found At Tahoe Ordered Removed

Old Tunnel Near Lake Has Nearly Car Powder Stored

OFFICERS ARE ACTIVE

Plans Being Made to Remove Dangerous Deposit In Old Mine

Several tons of well aged and thus dangerous dynamite have been located in an old abandoned mine tunnel near the Rubicon road and officers are working out a way to dispose of the explosives as soon as possible.

Constable Harry Johansen received a notification from Sheriff Elmer Gum of Placer county to investigate a report that the dynamite was in the old tunnel. Accompanied by Deputy Sheriff Charley Swanson, the investigation revealed nearly a car of the explosive as indicated in the letter. The powder is stored about 40 feet back from the entrance of the unused tunnel, which is located about a mile and a half from the Lakeshore highway and about a mile and a half from the Rubicon county road upon which work is slated to start in opening up a new recreational area in the near future.

The two officers did not molest the highly dangerous dynamite but prepared a chart of its location which was forwarded to the sheriff, they reported.

While the powder is not believed dangerous to roads or dwelling in the region, it is the desire of the officers to have it removed before work is started on the new road.

Flood Survey Of Truckee River Is Ordered Here

District Manager Receives Word of Plan to Make Survey

DAMS ARE PROPOSED

Order Is Believed Result Of Recent Conference At Reno

Word has been received this week by C. Edmunds, manager of the Truckee Public Utility District, that Major General Mullian L. Schley, the chief of the army engineers, has ordered detailed surveys made of the high water control on the Truckee river and its tributaries in California and Nevada.

On September 28, last year, a public hearing was held in Reno by the war department at which Colonel L. B. Chambers, district engineer presided. At that meeting, Edmunds appeared on behalf of the Utility District and presented a paper urging that suitable dams be built on the upper tributaries of the Truckee to control the waters above the confluence of the Little Truckee and the Truckee. Edmunds stressed the need for control of Prosser, Martis, Donner and Squaw creeks.

At the meeting representatives of Washoe County were present as well as numerous representatives of Lake Tahoe interests. It was suggested by Water Tender Duke of the Truckee river that a $6,000,000 dam be built on the main Truckee at the junction of Prosser creek and the river. This dam would back the waters up into Prosser creek and up the main Truckee into Martis Valley. H. F. Froste, representing the Lake Tahoe interests, suggested a similar dam at the same point but smaller and to cost approximately $2,000,000. Apparently the department was impressed with the need for some action along these lines and the present orders have resulted.

CITIZENS COME OF AGE

Too often the blessings of citizenship are taken for granted.

What for example, does the right to have a voice in guiding the destinies of this nation mean to thousands of young men and women who come of age every year? Probably not a great deal. All that's expected of them when they assume the privileges of citizenship is the perfunctory little act of scribbling their names on a piece of paper—and they are voters.

But in Manitowoc, Wis. a fishing, shipbuilding, and manufacturing town of 23,000, some 80 miles north of Milwaukee, people decided to enrich the occasion with with appropriate ceremonies. After all, they asked, was the fact of young Americans becoming full-fledged citizens of a democracy so trivial an event that it deserved nothing more than writing one's name on the voter's register? Five months ago, with the cooperation of the University of Wisconsin, Manitowoc began holding citizenship classes for all young Americans coming of age this year. The response was enthusiastic.

Climaxing those five months of study, the city and county of Manitowoc last week showed America something new, with a day of serious celebration at which 350 native-born Americans were publicly inducted into citizenship. From the governor of Wisconsin each received a certificate of citizenship. From an audience of many thousands, gathered from all over the state, came cheers and applause. There was music from bands, and the stirring symphony of thousands of voices raised in song.

Citizenship means dedication to service. The ceremony at which these several hundred young Americans dedicated themselves publicly to the service possessed a solemnity far more gripping than signing the register book.

Doubtless other cities and counties will feel like falling into line and welcoming their young people into citizenship each year with ceremonies just as worthy of high occasion.

POLITICALLY SPEAKING

by JOHN W. DUNLAP
United Press Staff Correspondent

SACRAMENTO, June 1.—(UP)—The alien fishing bills, locked in the assembly fish and game committee while the legislature frittered away the weeks, probably will still be there when the boys go home around the middle of June.

Attempts to withdraw them from committee by floor vote have failed and the committee itself is so nearly deadlocked there is little chance of getting them out.

There was high dudgeon some time ago what Walter Winchell orated from New York that a sum of $250,000 supposedly was being spent to defeat the legislation which would require all commercial fishermen off the California coastline to be United States citizens. Without saying so the bills automatically eliminated Japanese from the sardine fishing industry.

Lined up behind the bill are Governor Olson and the United States Navy. There was some talk that the navy wasn't officially represented at the hearings but a high official from San Diego conferred in secret with the committee and presumably satisfied most of the members he had orders from headquarters.

Advocates of the bill talked patriotism, national defense, spying activities and effect of the fishermen in event of war. Opponents said it was discrimination against the Japanese after they had built up a valuable industry and that spying and defense claims were grossly exaggerated.

Clubwomen of Southern California led the fight to get an anti-obscene literature bill into the legislation, from where Lee Bashore, Republican assemblyman from Glendora, secured assembly passage. The bill is aimed to clean up sale of obscene literature, books and pictures, particularly where school children are involved.

Opposition centers on who shall say what is obscene and what is art, citing as examples certain pictures and statuary in the exposition at San Francisco.

Gossip about a special session of the legislature within six months of adjournment grows hotter in Sacramento as the stalemate on legislation become more intense. Virtually nothing of any consequence has been accomplished to date, particularly on the controversial subject of unemployment relief.

One by one, Governor Olson's policies are being side-tracked. He is being rebuffed in both houses and a special session would be one way of forcing the legislature to take a firm stand in major issues.

Relief is the major headache. There are half a dozen plans proposed of which at least three are in well-defined form. But when committees from both houses try to compromise on a workable solution, no headway is made. As a result, relief may be nursed along pretty much in the present form until policy can be determined that meets objections of all factions.

For one thing a report is being awaited from a non-partisan committee named by the governor some time ago. The committee says its report may not be forthcoming until July and the legislators say they would like to inspect it before setting relief policies.

A special session next fall would have the added advantage of not conflicting with the many tangents of legislation of the regular session. With nothing to tackle except relief and a few other major issues, it is possible—although the foibles of individual legislators can't be predicted—that something could be worked out.

The governor is insisting that his program of public works be adopted. The Republicans want to tightly restrict relief, cut down cash payments, establish state stores, and ban aliens. Others want relievers to work under the public works department. Ideas are a dime a dozen whenever legislators get together.

There is a possibility that legislature might choose to put "recess" until later in the year, rather than

— IN JUSTICE COURT —

TAHOE CITY, June 1—A resident of the North End of the Lake appeared before Judge Evelyn W. Bliss on Monday morning, when he was fined for leaving a brush fire without extinguishing it properly. Fortunately the ensuing fire which resulted was seen by the lookout at Martis Peak before any severe damage resulted but is an example that the greatest cautions are not great enough in the current dry season.

Several traffic violators were given tickets by Officer Gene Walker and are due to appear before Judge Bliss for violations over the week end.

Treasure Island Trip Is Enjoyed By Tahoe Group

TAHOE CITY, June 1—Accompanied by their teacher and three guardians, Mesdames Eleanor Swanson, and Mr. Tejas Edwards, a group of Tahoe school children left for a three day trip to Treasure Island and San Francisco. The school's bus was utilized for transportation and was driven by Mrs. Stella Watson. The expedition started from the lake at 8 a. m. on Wednesday. Lunch was enjoyed at noon in Del Paso Park near Sacramento. Excitement ran high throughout the trip and two of the youngsters got their first look at San Francisco. They were the Misses Betty Renner and Helen Meisenheimer.

The hotel was reached following a trip across the bay on a ferry. The various groups were assigned rooms. Dinner was followed by a variety of activities. Part of the young people visited the famous Chinatown in San Francisco, another climbed Telegraph Hill and Coit's Tower and looked down at San Francisco's lights, and a third group, in anticipation of the next day, went to bed.

By 9:15 the following morning the group had breakfast on Treasure Island. Two former Tahoeites, Mrs. Fred Cowell and Mrs. George Collins joined the party and the guide-conducted tour began. General Electric's illustrated lecture proved thrilling and educational. Then, followed a visit to the famous telephone exhibit with its newest developments in communications. Dinner was sandwiched between a tour of the Ford exhibit and a visit to the Scottish village where the home of Robert Burns was faithfully reproduced. Here the children witnessed some of the rare old Scotch dances performed in costume and Scot explained the traditions and customs of his people.

Following breakfast Friday morning, seats were found in the grandstand where an hour was spent viewing the thousands of school children and their gaily garbed bands which paraded in competition. An inspection tour of the Palace of Fine Arts

NEW CONSTRUCTION

TAHOE CITY, June 1—Capt. George Whittell of Sand Harbor, Nevada, and Woodside, is making improvements on his extensive Lake holdings. Among them are a new stone and rustic cottage, a 400 foot tunnel to the newly constructed boat house and numerous others. Another tunnel leads to another boathouse from the owner's residence on a cliff overlooking Tahoe. A chamber, hollowed out of the rock, houses an elevator which conveys people from the house to the tunnels. This is to provide ready access to boats and hydroplanes in the deep winter snows.

The hydroplane has been sent to the factory in New York for repairs while Whittell and some friends are in Europe.

A new garage with living quarters above is being added to the home of Mrs. John Reedy of San Francisco in Timberland Tract by N. R. Mayfield of Tahoe City.

New tennis courts have been added to the Maxwell Milton home at Sunnyside and to the J. I. Walters home near Rampart.

At Pinecrest J. Howard Johnston is having several cabins, tennis and badminton courts added by John Johnson.

The boat landing pier at Tahoe City Commons was repaired recently by Art Brodehl, who has the mail boat. It is now possible for boats to land at Tahoe City, as they did previous to the fire which partly destroyed the pier year ago last October.

A new home in Tahoe Park is now under way for Mr. and Mrs. Walter Maccabee of Sacramento.

Two new cabins are in course of construction at Pinecrest Resort.

The cottage court across the highway from the Nevada Club has several new cabins.

C. W. Vernon is adding a room to the Tahoe Novelty Shop which has opened for the season.

with its priceless treasures was followed by lunch. The final stop was the Aviation Building which houses Doug Corrigan's famous crate and the big Boeing Flying Fortress.

There were no mishaps and no one was ill. The only person that strayed off and got lost was Mrs. Sisk, one of the chaperones, who found the group after an hour.

The trip home was featured by dinner at Auburn with arrival at Tahoe at about 11:30 p. m.

Outstanding memories will be the beautiful shrubs and gorgeous beds of fragrant, colorful flowers of every description, the lighting effects at night and the classic architectural beauty.

Gratitude and sincere thanks was extended to all who made the trip possible and enjoyable.

The group included, beside the elders, Tiny Nelson, Leatrice Goss, Robert Edwards, Helen Meisenheimer, Betty Renner, Dorothy Young, Betty Woodruff, Peggy Lewis, Jimmie Baker, Dick Hinkle, Lois Reeves, Mary Lou Holland, Don Prusso, Howard Fyle, Jane David, Faith Pyle, Dick Carnell, Everett Peterson, Glen Lewis, Richard Cagle, Robert Stark, Billie Hoyer, Dale Hessee, Pete Vanni, and Joe, June and Paul White who joined the party at the Fair.

World's cleanest cooking unit. A wipe with a damp cloth keeps the solid top clean! Four heats, including "simmer" which uses 60% less current than ordinary "low."

Cooks whole meal for five people—meat, vegetables, dessert—for about 1c. Gives soups, stews, and other slow-cooked foods a flavor and tang "store goods" can't match—far cheaper, too!

It's big and fast—bakes biscuits in 8 minutes from a cold-oven start. Economical—uses NO electricity 51 minutes out of the hour in average baking and roasting operations.

ON TAHOE HIGHWAYS

TAHOE CITY, June 1—The state highway commission is having general repair and patching job done on Lakeshore Highway from Brockway to Emerald Bay. During the past week state engineers were surveying highway boundary lines through Tahoe City and relocating water pipes, previous to the new pipelaying planned by the Tahoe City Public Utility District.

Ben Hepper of the California Highway patrol, a resident of Lodi, is stationed at the South end of the Lake for the summer.

If present plans materialize highway officials at Tahoe will be equipped with two way radio stations between Truckee, Tahoe and Donner Summit for use when the winter comes and highway communications are difficult according to Karl Week, who is in charge of the Highway Department in Truckee. Operators will be stationed at different points to send and receive messages. All equipment will carry radio sending and receiving sets which will facilitate communications with headquarters in case of storm. It is sincerely hoped that the plan will materialize as it will do away with such happenings as the accident at Emerald Bay a few years ago when a slide buried the plow and one man was badly hurt.

Sunday School Plans For Progressive Building in '39

TAHOE CITY, June 1—Tahoe City Branch of the American Sunday School Union meets every Sunday morning in the Tahoe Community Hall at 10:30. Average attendance now is in the thirties. Pupils are planning a special program for Children's Day in June when a drive for funds for the missions will also be started. New primary equipment has been donated to the school by Mrs. Don Edwards and Tejas Edwards.

Another branch of this organization is planned for the south end of the Lake where Mrs. Elizabeth Van Der Ploeg will be superintendent. This branch will be at Tahoe Vista.

Other planned projects in June include a picnic at the State Camp Grounds at which Mrs. Willis Hevel and Mrs. Tejas Edwards will be joint hostesses.

South End Caretaker Passes On, Sixty Five

TAHOE CITY, June 1—The death of N. Rontania, 69 year old caretaker, was discovered at Fallen Leaf Lake last Tuesday. He had been a resident of Tahoe for 35 years.

Neighbors had missed the aged man who was last seen at Camp Richardson on Saturday and on entering the cabin, they found in bed.

Burial was at Tallac cemetery Friday under the direction of Coroner Correlli of Placerville. The deceased was a native of Italy and left no known relatives in U. S.

Miss Pronzato Given Party Honoring Her Betrothal

TAHOE CITY, June 1—A very pleasant afternoon party at the home of Mrs. A. M. Henry on Wednesday last was the occasion for the announcement of the engagement of Miss Mary Pronzato of the Tahoe High School staff to Jack Tressider of San Francisco. Mrs. Bliss Hinkle vice principal of the school, was joint hostess at the affair.

Decorations and refreshments were in the betrothal motif with little Miss Donna Grover dressed as Cupid containing part of the message on her shield and the rest of the happy secret being hidden in the cakes.

The honoree is a graduate of Stanford and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Pronzato of Fort Bragg and has been on the Tahoe staff for the past few years.

The lucky man is a civil engineer.

Fishing, Weather Good With Many Fines Catches

TAHOE CITY, June 1—The level of Lake Tahoe on Monday, May 29th was 6227.22 feet with four gates at the Truckee Dam outlet and 220 C. S. F. of water leaving the lake. Precipitation recorded during the past week totaled .78 inches. Temperatures varied from a high of 76 degrees Sunday to a low of 28 degrees.

Thousands of motorists took advantage of the fine weather on the weekend to drive to Tahoe and traffic officers were stationed at highway junctions and other busy points all day. Hundreds of fishermen were trying their luck both on the lake and the Truckee River with many fine catches reported.

Lucky fishermen at Tahoe last week with big catches reported were Billy Bohdolt, a 7 pound mackinaw; Alice Soll, a fine large steelhead and Mrs. Jack Malcolm, who got a 15 pound mackinaw in the lake.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H.—Salvaging of the ill-fated U. S. submarine, Squalus, in which 26 men died, is a difficult operation which the sub tender Falcon is now undertaking near Portsmouth, N. H. At right a diver is swung over the side. Months may be required for the salvage job, because the Squalus is the largest (1,450 tons) sub yet sunk. Depth is 243 feet.

WORK PROGRESSES ON BOCA DAM SITE

When the Boca dam on the Little Truckee is completed this summer it will have a storage capacity of 40,000 acre feet of water. Nearly 27,000 acre feet now are backed up by the dam. Needle valves are to be installed in the diversion tunnel soon and gates for flood control will also be installed in the spillway.

According to Watermaster H. C. Dukes, the water now stored is about a foot from the top of the spillway level and the flow of water from the dam has been cut approximately 50 per cent.

WITH YOUR ASSEMBLYMAN, THURMAN

(by Assemblyman Allen G. Thurman)

Another week has gone by and your legislators are still working day and night on their large calendar. And we might also add, working without pay. The main reason for the legislature being behind with its work are the budget which is still under consideration, and many controversial bills which require so much time for debate on the floor. The writer cannot see how the session can adjourn before June 15 and it may be later.

Your assemblyman, with the aid of Assemblymen Kuchel, Carlson and Phillips successfully opposed a so-called peaceful picketing bill last week, which if passed would have prevented any city or county from passing an anti picketing ordinance. Our opposition was based on the right of the citizens of a city or county to govern themselves. The bill took away the right of home rule. The bill, AB 105, introduced by Assemblyman Rosenthal of Los Angeles, lost by a vote of 38 to 33. On a motion to reconsider the bill was again defeated 38 to 35.

In opposing the bill, your assemblyman cited the labor disputes in Nevada County, instituted largely by outside labor agitators.

A bill in which all registered nurses of the district re interested, AB 620, known as the nursing practice act, which would set up a new state board of nursing examiners, passed the lower house last week by a vote of 60 to 2. The writer was happy to cast his vote in favor of the bill.

Your assemblyman was swamped with telegrams one morning last week, receiving 71 in all, as well as several letters and petitions. These telegrams and petitions came from state employees throughout the district opposing a bill which they believe will stop their salary adjustments.

A bill which will liberalize some of the features of the old age pension laws in the state was passed by the lower house last Friday. While no increase over monthly payments of $35 was approved, the bill does eliminate some of the bad features of the present law.

adjourn in June. That would deprive the governor of a special call and the privilege of stipulating subjects to be taken up. Such a recess was taken in 1933 to enact the Stewart-Riley tax plan.

In event of a special session, the legislature would only appropriate enough money to carry relief a few months.

Mother Of Missing Trio Of Children Located

Mrs. Myrtle Lloyd, who was sought by Nevada authorities recently when her three young daughters arrived there from their grandmother's home in Colorado, was located in Grass Valley where she had obtained work on a nearby ranch and has been united with her family.

The mother told officials she had not expected the girls to arrive as she had written her mother not to send them as she was going to leave Reno, having been unsuccessful in obtaining work. In a previous letter she had asked to have the children sent to her but the second letter telling of the change of plans evidently did not reach its destination. The family had lived in Truckee for several months some time ago. The father who had been employed here is on furlough from a veterans' hospital.
